

Exercise as one of the most important pillars of ensuring the vitality and health of body and soul and also the main social and cultural indicator in today's life has a fundamental and fundamental role and therefore not just one day, but all days and It overshadows the hours of life