... Happy Physical Education Day

Exercise as one of the most important pillars of ensuring the vitality and health of body and soul and also the main social and cultural indicator in today's life has a fundamental and fundamental role and therefore not just one day, but all days and It overshadows the hours of life